OUR STORY

Established in 1979, Troyanda Ukrainian Dance Ensemble is proud to call Selkirk, Manitoba their home. Troyanda, meaning rose, operates under the objective to preserve and promote Ukrainian culture through the art of dance. This group of young, talented performers has grown to be one of Canada's most vibrant and energetic Ukrainian dance ensembles.

Troyanda has had the opportunity to develop an extensive repertoire representing the diverse regions of Ukraine. The Ensemble is honoured to have worked with many talented choreographers which has given them the ability to truly capture the essence of Ukrainian culture and tradition.

Troyanda has captivated audiences worldwide with their performance and undeniable passion for Ukrainian dance. Under the direction of Ms. Kristina Frykas and Mr. Paul Droniuk, Troyanda continues to perfect their art and inspire audiences of all kinds. The artistic team provides the Ensemble with professional instruction and expertise. The dancers have developed a strong sense of determination, loyalty and pride which shines through as their rich spirit and energy onstage.

Troyanda's dancers agree why their passion for the Ensemble runs high; they are a family. The encouragement and focus of the dancers is truly unique. Not only is each member committed to the Ensemble, they are committed to each other, making for an unbreakable bond of their ever-growing family.
